

ANCIENT WORLD CONFERENCE 2009

Saturday 12th Sep 2009
09.00-09.45	Arrival Coffee and Registration in North Cloisters.
09.50-10.00	Peter Allingham &amp; Jan Picton – Welcome – Cruciform Theatre
10.00-11.15	Sabri Abd el-Aziz	SCA Projects In Egypt We are delighted to be joined by Dr Sabry of the Supreme Council of Antiquities in Cairo. As head of Egyptology at the SCA, Dr Sabry will update us on some of the fascinating work the SCA has been undertaking recently.
11.15-12.30	Stephen Quirke	The Workforce on Petrie Excavations And Their Profile, From 1880 To The Present Day Exploring the lives of the men, women and children, who made Petrie's long career in Egypt not only possible, but so resoundingly successful.
12.30-13.30	Lunch – North Cloisters
13.30-14.45	Dirk Huyge	The Late Palaeolithic Rock Art Of Qurta Revealing the new rock art sites close to the Kom Ombo Plain which are quite unlike any known rock art in Egypt and likened to European Ice Age art.
14.45-16.00	Paul Collins	Religion And Kingship At The Assyrian Capital Of Nimrud Exploration of some of the greatest sculptures from antiquity: the stone reliefs from the Assyrian capital of Nimrud in northern Iraq.
16.00-16.30	Afternoon tea
16.30-17.40	Rosalie David	Mummies And Medicine: The Contribution Of Modern Science Scientific analysis of Egyptian mummies and artefacts, at the KNH Centre for Biomedical Egyptology, is producing startling evidence of everyday lifestyle.
17.45	The Bar will be open in North Cloisters until 23.00. Dinner will be served in the Lower Refectory from 19.00 until 20.30.

Sunday 13th Sep 2009
09.00-10.15	Caroline Wilkinson	The Facial Analysis Of Ancient Egyptians A discussion of the techniques, accuracy and applications of forensic facial reconstruction of Ancient Egyptians.
10.15-11.30	Michael Wood	Alexander's Greatest Battle Alexander and Darius - using new evidence, journeying through Syria and Iraq to pin down the site of the battle of Gaugamela.
11.30-12.00	Coffee Break – North Cloister
12.00-13.15	Colin Reader	Explorations In The Egyptian Eastern Desert Discovering the many facets of the Desert spanning an unimaginable period of geological time looking at ancient quarries, mines and rock art.
13.15-14.00	Lunch – North Cloister
14.00-15.15	Chris Naunton	The History Of Egyptology – The EES And Beyond The EES archives are an invaluable resource for the history of Egyptology. A look at the material and the new initiatives designed to complement it.
15.15-16.30	Lucia Gahlin	Purity And Order In An Ancient Egyptian Household An exploration of the private religious lives of families, especially women, as they coped with the mysteries of the human life cycle.
16.30	Peter Allingham	Conference Closes